

A man in a light-colored shirt is shown in profile, kneeling with his hands clasped in prayer. He is looking down towards a vast, golden-hued landscape that appears to be a valley or a body of water, possibly at sunrise or sunset. The sky is filled with dramatic, golden light rays streaming down from the right side, creating a sense of divine presence and hope. The overall mood is one of quiet reflection and spiritual connection.

In the Stillness

By Matt

"In the stillness of my soul, I know that YOU are near oh LORD.

In the stillness of my heart, I know that YOU care for me

Though I am not worthy...

though I cannot understand.

In the Stillness of my mind,

YOUR will be Done.

I do not trust my feelings

I do not trust my thoughts

In the Stillness of it All

I found YOU within.

Be still and know, that HE is GOD.

Exalt and Praise HIM, make HIM your King.

In the stillness of my all, LORD

I know that YOU are GOD.

*Jesus, Son of GOD
Have mercy upon my Soul
Holy Spirit of GOD
Guide me from all the foul.*

*LORD I fail daily, spots and wrinkles all I have at times.
Have mercy on my soul, Lord, lead me out by the Way YOU gave.
Take this brutish heart and make of it a Saint, let YOUR love pump through my veins, for the benefit of all.*

*In the Stillness of YOUR presence is where I find peace.
No condemnation, but guidance to a better way.
In the Stillness of my striving
YOUR will is shown
It is that I want to do, not the mess I make on my own.
Teach me to be still LORD,, that I may know YOU more and more.
Take this filthy garment, LORD!
Give a garment white as snow.*

*Do YOUR pleasure, Father.
All that is needed to save my soul.
Not just me LORD, but all who call upon YOUR Name.
Here I am, LORD, as I am
Not worthy, not pure, but thirsting for Righteousness, within and without.*

Be still and know that He is GOD."

3. Devotional Reflection

We are far from perfect; we fall short of GOD'S Glory. To end this quiet moment... Here is the chapter from where the Verse of the Day comes.

Romans 12:1-21 ESV

“[1] I appeal to you therefore, brothers, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship. [2] Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that by testing you may discern what is the will of God, what is good and acceptable and perfect. [3] For by the grace given to me I say to everyone among you not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think, but to think with sober judgment, each according to the measure of faith that God has assigned. [4] For as in one body we have many members, and the members do not all have the same function, [5] so we, though many, are one body in Christ, and individually members one of another. [6] Having gifts that differ according to the grace given to us, let us use them: if prophecy, in proportion to our faith; [7] if service, in our serving; the one who teaches, in his teaching; [8] the one who exhorts, in his exhortation; the one who contributes, in generosity; the one who leads, with zeal; the one who does acts of mercy, with cheerfulness. [9] Let love be genuine. Abhor what is evil; hold fast to what is good. [10] Love one another with brotherly affection. Outdo one another in showing honor. [11] Do not be slothful in zeal, be fervent in spirit, serve the Lord. [12] Rejoice in hope, be patient in tribulation, be constant in prayer. [13] Contribute to the needs of the saints and seek to show hospitality. [14] Bless those who persecute you; bless and do not curse them. [15] Rejoice with those who rejoice, weep with those who weep. [16] Live in harmony with one another. Do not be haughty, but associate with the lowly. Never be wise in your own sight. [17] Repay no one evil for evil, but give thought to do what is honorable in the sight of all. [18] If possible, so far as it depends on you, live peaceably with all. [19] Beloved, never avenge yourselves, but leave it to the wrath of God, for it is written, “Vengeance is mine, I will repay, says the Lord.” [20] To the contrary, “if your enemy is hungry, feed him; if he is thirsty, give him something to drink; for by so doing you will heap burning coals on his head.” [21] Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.”

There is a Way marked out for us to follow, a narrow road.

It requires us to go against that which we would so quick call out human nature.

Not my will, but GOD'S, all as given by the Word of GOD made flesh.

We all fall short of His glory, but is it seen as an excuse or motivation to do what is right?

To do that, we must go against the nature of the flesh, lay that old man down and take on what Christ gave a new.

Day by Day we make our choices, is it for good or is it evil?
